MEET MILLIE BOBBY BROWN

Millie Bobby Brown has been at our shelter for nearly 320 days. As you can see in her eyes, she's kind of over it. So, she wanted to introduce herself to you in the hopes of finally finding a home. Here's what Millie said:

"Did you ever hear the saying, 'First they're sour, then they're sweet?' Well, that's a perfect way to describe me! I'm Millie Bobby Brown, but you can call me Millie or Mill Mill. I was brought into the shelter as a stray. When I first came in, I was a sassy girl. Now that I have been in the shelter for quite some time, I not only got to know everyone, but I may have also stolen a lot of hearts! I love giving head butts and having conversations with the humans. However, I am sensitive on my belly and sides, so please be gentle if you need to pick me up. I'm also going to need a cat-savvy human who can give me time to adjust to my new home. I love sauce treats and could probably get the vet here to write me a doctor's note ordering sauce treats everyday. I'll ask her.

In the meantime, please apply to adopt me! The humans say you can do it on the website. I've been here longer than any other cat, but I watch so many of my neighbors leave before me. I guess it just takes a while to find the right one. I hope the right one is reading this. I can't wait to go home!"
